I Was Glad
Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848–1918)

Westminster Choir

I was glad when they said unto me: We will go into the house of the Lord.
Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.
Jerusalem is built as a city: that is at unity in itself.
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.
(Psalm 122:1-3, 6-7)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Patrick A. Hunnicutt

Merciful God,
We have sinned in what we have thought and said,
In the wrong we have done
And in the good we have not done.
We have sinned in ignorance:
We have sinned in weakness:
We have sinned through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry.
We repent and turn to you.
Forgive us, for our Savior Christ's sake,
And renew our lives to the glory of your name.

Please continue to pray silently

Upon This Rock
John Ness Beck (1930–1987)

Upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Upon this rock I will build my church! Lo, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds has come. Arise, and come away! Adult Education in Haverkamp Room | Embracing Transformation

Themes of Change and Transformation in the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles with Dr. Katherine Grieb, Virginia Theological Seminary

September 9–October 21

The first disciples of Jesus in the early church were constantly dealing with issues of change and transformation. After all, the resurrection of Jesus from the dead meant that everything they had thought they understood was now to be re-thought in the light of God's surprising action. They experienced various kinds of change: individual and communal, mind and heart, circumstance and vision or point of view. Sometimes change brought struggle, even conflict; more often, it brought joy and a new appreciation of God's providential care for them. For the full Embracing Transformation schedule, visit wpc-alex.org/embracing-transformation.
